PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. In 2016, Petitioner Mr. Fardad Vahdat, (“Mr. Vahdat”) was granted deferral of removal under Article III of the Convention Against Torture from his native Iran - a decision which the Department of Homeland Security waived appeal from. Exh 1. He was ultimately released pursuant to an Order of Supervision.

2. On or about June 23, 2025, Mr. Vahdat - who was at his liberty and upon information and belief in full compliance with the terms of his Order Of Supervision - was walking down a street in Buffalo, New York, when he was approached by ICE officers. He was detained without warning or process and ultimately taken to the Buffalo Detention Facility.

3. Immigration counsel for Mr. Vahdat has asked ICE to explain its justification for Mr. Vahdat’s arrest and detention - including for clarity as to its intentions on what it intends to do with him. Exh 2. The response received from ICE is unnerving - stating, in its entirety:

Good morning, ICE has revoked his OSUP. You [sic] client has a final order for [sic] removal pending removal to Iran or another country of choice.

Exh 3.

4. This short response raises the possibility of four, separate unlawful and/or unconstitutional acts by the government. First, Mr. Vahdat’s “final order [of] removal” may not be executed: his removal to Iran has been deferred - and therefore any suggestion that Mr. Vardat can be removed to Iran is incorrect as a matter of law. Second, despite an explicit request, no reasons have been provided for revocation of his order of supervision and counsel are aware of none justifying it - rendering such a decision potentially unlawful. See, e.g. 8 C.F.R. § 241.4(4), 241.13 (setting out regulatory, required procedures for revocation of release) and Ceesay v. Kurzdorfer, No. 25-CV-267-LJV, 2025 WL 1284720 (W.D.N.Y. May 2, 2025) (finding no-notice revocation of release unlawful). Third, Mr. Vahdat has not been provided any notification regarding potential third countries - or as ICE put it, “another country of choice” - to which immigration authorities may attempt to remove him, have not provided him a mechanism to voice any fear of being removed to such a country, nor any timeline upon which he could be removed. Mr. Vahdat’s removal to a third country in these circumstances was subject to a preliminary injunction <sup>1</sup> which has now been stayed by the Supreme Court.<sup>2</sup> But until and unless the government makes its intentions clear, the government is preventing him from ascertaining whether he has a claim separate and apart from the stayed-D.V.D. class. Fourth, upon information and belief, the Department of Homeland Security does not have any reasonably foreseeable way of removing Mr. Vahdat: he cannot legally be deported to Iran, no travel documents have been obtained for any other country and there is no likelihood of obtaining one - even if Mr. Vahdat would not be able to state a credible fear of being deported to such countries (and as a man with significant mental health issues which require ongoing treatment, he is likely to be able to state a powerful claim to against removal to all countries the United States has been able to effect third country removals to recently). Likewise, upon information and belief, Mr. Vahdat poses no danger to the community. In other words, his detention at this time - nine years after his grant of deferral is not related to any lawful detention authority.

5. Until and unless the government is made to provide clarity to its detention authority and intentions regarding Mr. Vahdat, he is prevented from stating with particularity the basis of <sup>1</sup> D.V.D. v. U.S. Dep’t of Homeland Sec., No. CV 25-10676-BEM, 2025 WL 1142968 (D. Mass. Apr. 18, 2025), opinion clarified, No. CV 25-10676-BEM, 2025 WL 1323697 (D. Mass. his challenges to both his current detention and any attempts to remove him. But those answers are exclusively within the government's control and as such, he urgently invokes his ancient right for a writ of habeas corpus: to be brought before the Court and have this Court determine whether he is rightfully in confinement or not.

6. Additionally, should Mr. Vahdat be either moved out of the district or worse, out of the country pursuant to what he properly alleges is an ultra vires act (i.e. not based on any facially valid order of removal) he will not be able to vindicate his rights retroactively. For that reason, he implores the court to temporarily restrain his movement out of the Buffalo Federal Detention Facility until the Court has an opportunity for full briefing.

THE PARTIES

7. Petitioner Mr. Fardad Vahdat, is detained in the custody of ICE. As of 5:30pm on July 3, 2025, he is being held at the Buffalo Federal Detention Facility, Batavia, New York. His custody and governmental actions related to his removal are likewise controlled by the Buffalo Field office, which is located within this judicial district.

8. Respondent Joseph Freden is the Buffalo, NY Field Office Director for Enforcement and Removal Operations, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement. He is the local ICE official who has authority over the Petitioner. See Vasquez v. Reno, 233 F.3d 688, 690 (1st Cir. 2000), cert. denied, 122 S. Ct. 43 (2001). Respondent Feeley's office is at 250 Delaware Avenue, Floor 7, Buffalo, NY 14202. He may alternatively be considered to be Petitioner's immediate custodian. Respondent Searls' office is at the Buffalo Federal Detention Facility, 4250 Federal Drive, Batavia, NY 14020.

9. Petitioner's custody within this judicial district and the governmental actions related to his potential removal from the district are likewise controlled by Respondents Kurzdorfer, Lyons and Noem.

CUSTODY

10. Petitioner is in the physical custody of Respondents and U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") at the Buffalo Federal Detention Facility ("BFDF") at 4250 Federal Drive, Batavia, New York 14020. The Deportation Officer responsible for his case is stationed at BFDF. The Petitioner is under the direct care, custody and control of Respondents and their agents.

JURISDICTION & VENUE

I. SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION

11. This action arises under the Constitution of the United States, and the Immigration and Nationality Act ("INA"), 8 U.S.C. § 1101 et seq., as amended by the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996 ("IIRIRA"), Pub. L. No. 104 - 208, 110 Stat. 1570, and the Administrative Procedure Act ("APA"), 5 U.S.C. § 701 et seq.

12. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 2241, Art. I, § 9, el. 2 of the Constitution of the United States (the Suspension Clause) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331, as Petitioner is presently in custody under color of the authority of the United States, and such custody is in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. This Court may grant relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241, 5 U.S.C. § 702, the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651 and the Court's equitable habeas authority.

II. PERSONAL JURISDICTION

13. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Mr. Vahdat's immediate custodian (who is physically within the district).<sup>3</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Petitioner asserts this Court has personal jurisdiction over the additional Respondents, however, in the interests of brevity, the Petitioner will brief this if (1) any governmental acts challenged herein are found to relate to those Respondents (instead of the immediate custodian) and (2) the Government seeks to argue against personal jurisdiction.

III. VENUE

14. Pursuant to Braden v. 30th Judicial Circuit Court of Kentucky, 410 U.S.484, 493-500 (1973), venue lies in the United States District Court for the Western District of New York, the judicial district in which Petitioner is being detained. Petitioner is being detained at the Buffalo Federal Detention Facility, which is under the jurisdiction of the ICE Field Office of Buffalo, New York, which encompasses the area where Petitioner is being detained, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391.

ARGUMENT

I. THE PETITIONER MUST BE RELEASED UNLESS THE GOVERNMENT PROVES IT HAS THE LAWFUL AUTHORITY TO DETAIN HIM

15. The information provided by DHS thus far suggests that its re-arrest and continuing detention of Mr. Varhat violate its own regulations (namely 8 C.F.R. § 241.4 and 241.13). Specifically, (1) there has been no apparent change in circumstances since his deferral of removal was granted in 2016, (2) Mr. Varhat does not appear to have violated any of the conditions of his Order of Supervision, which was revoked without notice or reason given (3) there is no reason to believe that Mr. Varhat “can be removed in the foreseeable future” and (4) there is no other compelling reason for the government to re-arrest and redetain him. As such, Mr. Varhat anticipates being able to state with particularity why his current detention is unlawful - and correspondingly a violation of procedural and substantive due process.

16. But because the rationale underpinning the government’s actions is exclusively within the control of the respondents - and they have refused to state the justification for his arrest and detention - the Petitioner must, for now, rely upon the ancient form of the writ; to have this Court (1) ascertain the legal justification for his detention and (2) determine whether it is lawful. Dep’t of Homeland Sec. v. Thuraissigiam, 591 U.S. 103, 117 (2020) (“Habeas, [...] is the appropriate remedy to ascertain ... whether any person is rightfully in confinement or not.”)

(internal citations omitted).

17. This is true whether under this Court’s statutory jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 2241, or the Suspension Clause of the Constitution (should any statutory provision purport to strip jurisdiction). U.S. CONST. Art. I, § 9, cl. 2.

18. DHS must be forced to describe with particularity why it believes it has the legal right to detain the Petitioner. If it does not, this Court must issue the writ to release him forthwith.

II. THE PETITIONER MAY NOT BE REMOVED FROM THE UNITED STATES UNLESS AND UNTIL THE GOVERNMENT PROVES IT HAS THE LAWFUL RIGHT TO DO SO

19. Once again, the Petitioner has a right to the ancient form of the writ; to have this Court ascertain whether the Government’s actions in attempting to remove him - either pursuant to the February 1, 2016 order of removal to Iran (which it is legally prevented from executing due to the grant of deferral) or to “another country of choice”, Exh 3, (without even a semblance of due process and contrary to the statute and regulations regarding designations of third countries for removal) - are lawful.

20. If the Government believes it has the right to remove Mr. Varhat, it must state why and he will be able to respond accordingly. If it does not, it must release him as his detention has become divorced from the only possible detention authority the Government possesses over Mr. Varhat.

III. THE RESPONDENTS MUST BE PREVENTED FROM REMOVING MR. VAHDAT OUT OF THIS JUDICIAL DISTRICT DURING THE PENDENCY OF THESE PROCEEDINGS

21. Mr. Vahdat has significant mental health problems, Exh 4, in addition to difficulties with comprehension. Telephonic visits for legal matters are thus particularly problematic, and in person consultation with counsel is correspondingly extremely important. Mr. Vahdat's participation in these proceedings would thus become difficult - and potentially impossible - if he were transferred out of the jurisdiction prior this Court resolving this petition, even if the Court retains jurisdiction no matter where the Respondents may seek to transfer him.

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

COUNT 1: PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS TO PREVENT THE GOVERNMENT FROM REMOVING MR. VAHDAT FROM THE UNITED STATES WHEN IT HAS NO LEGAL AUTHORITY TO DO SO

22. Mr. Vahdat re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein, and does so for all additional counts.

23. Mr. Vahdat may not be removed to any country at this time: he is subject to an order of removal which may not be executed and has received neither notification, nor opportunity to state a claim for fear of relief to any third country. The Government must be prevented from unlawfully detaining and removing him. Dep't of Homeland Sec. v. Thuraissigiam, 591 U.S. 103 117(2020) ("Habeas, [...] is the appropriate remedy to ascertain ... whether any person is rightfully in confinement or not.")(internal citations omitted).

COUNT 2: MR. VARHAT'S CURRENT DETENTION IS IN VIOLATION OF THE REGULATIONS, CONTRAVENES THE STATUTORY BASIS FOR POST-ORDER DETENTION AND VIOLATES PROCEDURAL AND DUE PROCESS PROTECTIONS

24. Mr. Vahdat re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein, and does so for all additional counts.

25. Since his deferral of removal was granted in 2016, (1) there has been no change of circumstances (2) Mr. Varhat does not appear to have violated any of the conditions of his Order of Supervision, which was revoked without notice or reason given (3) there is no reason to believe that Mr. Varhat “can be removed in the foreseeable future” and (4) there is no other compelling reason for the government to re-arrest and redetain him. His detention is unlawful and violates his procedural and substantive due process rights. Dep’t of Homeland Sec. v. Thuraissigiam, 591 U.S. 103 117(2020) (“Habeas, [...] is the appropriate remedy to ascertain ... whether any person is rightfully in confinement or not.”)(internal citations omitted).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that the Court grant the following relief:

- (1) Assume jurisdiction over this matter;
- (2) Prevent the Petitioner’s removal outside of this judicial district until this action is decided;
- (3) Issue a temporary stay of Petitioner’s removal until this action is decided;
- (4) Grant the Writ of Habeas Corpus and;
- (5) Fashion such additional relief as is necessary and appropriate, including declaratory relief or other interim relief necessary to vindicate Petitioners’ rights under U.S. and international law.

Dear Duty Attorney:

I am seeking information on Mr. Vahdat. Form G-28 is attached. My understanding is that he was granted deferral of removal to Iran in 2016. He was recently taken into ICE custody and is detained at BDFD.

Can you please tell me how ICE is processing his case at this time? Does ICE intend to seek termination of the deferral before an IJ, third country removal, something else? Any information or documentation you can provide would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you,

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I. (a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.

Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.

Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judgment. (7) Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate judge's decision.

VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553
Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service

VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.

VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.
